PEOPLE ON THE MOVE/RESTAURANTS

Hugh Nicks has been promoted vice president of marketing and corporate planning, and Bill Stenzhorn has been named vice president of operations of Carlos O'Kelly's Mexican Cafe in Wichita, Kan. Nicks served previously as director of marketing for six years while Stenzhorn, a 19-year foodservice veteran, served most recently as Midwest director of operations for the company.

Karl Batson has been promoted to management recruiter for O'Charley's Restaurants in Nashville, Tenn. Batson is responsible for developing programs for high schools and colleges to create awareness of career opportunities in restaurant management as well as screening and selecting qualified candidates for management positions. Before joining O'Charley's Batson was employed by Applebee's and Steak & Ale.

Richard Lamoureux has been promoted to executive chef of Villa Pescatore and Plum's Cafe, both in Naples, Fla. Lamoureux is responsible for overseeing kitchen operations for the restaurants. Before his promotion he served as executive sous chef at Villa Pescatore for two years.

Nicks

Stenzhorn

Batson

Lamoureaux

Smith

Jerdon

Kindler

Menezes

Susan Smith has been hired as human resources manager at Grandma's Restaurant Co. in Duluth, Minn. She oversees all aspects of human resources management for the company and its employees.

Dixie Jerdon, executive director of Yours Truly Restaurants, has been named to the foodservice program volunteer partnership panel of the American Heart Association. Jerdon was selected for the panel based on her work with Yours Truly's nutritional analysis program.

Jeffrey B. Kindler has been appointed senior vice president and general counsel for McDonald's Corp. Before joining McDonald's Corp., Kindler was vice president and senior counsel for General Electric Co.

Sergio Menezes De C. Pires has been appointed vice president of human resources for Crocodile Enterprises Inc. in Pasadena, Calif. He is responsible for all aspects of human resources, including planning, administration, training and information systems.

Jeff Moogk has been appointed executive corporate chef for all of Sammy's California Woodfired Pizza restaurants. Moogk, a graduate of The Culinary Institute of America, most recently served as executive chef at the Hyatt Regency Aventine and was instrumental in creating and opening Cafe Japengo restaurant.

Thomas Girard has been named new CHEFS Coalition director for the Public Voice for Food and Health Policy. Girard, who served as general manager for Roberto Donna's Galileo Ristorante in Washington, is responsible for implementing the Coalition's goals and maximizing the organization's national visibility and effectiveness.

Wes Jablonski has been named vice president of technology services for Sonic Corp. and Subsidiaries. Jablonski most recently served as a consultant for Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores Inc.

James K. Fitzpatrick has been named chief development officer for Quality Dining Inc. Fitzpatrick has been with Quality Dining for 12 years and most recently served as senior vice president and director of operations for the Burger King division of the company.

Michael E. Ryan has joined the Manhattan Bagel Co. as a district manager for Pennsylvania, Ohio, Delaware and Southwestern New Jersey. In his new position, Ryan serves as a liaison between the bagel franchisor and its franchisees in the district.

In addition, Ronald S. Hari, who joined Manhattan Bagel last year as director of special projects, has been promoted to vice president of operations. Hari oversees operations of the company's store network, including its franchisee training, field assistance and marketing departments. He continues to direct the chain's co-branding programs. Before joining Manhattan Bagel Co. Hari served as president of Capico International, a franchise marketing and management consulting firm.

Siamak Masoudi has been appointed director of international development and operations for Country Hospitality Worldwide. Masoudi is responsible for overseeing the company's hotel and restaurant development efforts internationally. Before joining the company Masoudi served as general manager of the Radisson Hotel Wilmington in Wilmington, Del.

Paula J. Schultz has been named director of marketing for DF&R Restaurants Inc. Schultz served previously as director of marketing for Brinker International's Chili's concept until 1995.

David Goronkin has been promoted to director of operations for HomeTown Buffet Inc. He is responsible for the overall operations of all HomeTown Buffet restaurants. Before joining the company Goronkin served as division manager for the Chi-Chi's division of Foodmaker Inc.

Karen Fast has been named catering sales manager for the Washington D.C., Morton's of Chicago in Georgetown. She is responsible for sales for the Boardroom, the restaurant's private dining and meeting facility.

Michel Bourdeaux has been named executive chef at Tatou in New York. Bourdeaux formerly was head chef at Le Cirque and Le Chantilly in New York.

Mike Hocter has been appointed general manager of Big Fish restaurant in West Conshohocken, Pa. Hocter most recently served as general manager of Charley's Crab in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Hocter previously served as general manager for Stouffer Restaurants unit in Stamford, Conn.

John Campbell has been appointed national director of alternative development for America's Favorite Chicken Co. in Atlanta. He is responsible for finding new opportunities in alternative venue channels for Popeyes and Churchs restaurants, working in specific markets targeted for growth and with key national accounts affecting the signing of new commitments and the resulting openings. Before joining AFC, Campbell pioneered alternative development at Dunkin Donuts and Arby's. He also owned a multiunit Dunkin Donuts franchise in Atlanta.

James R. Hager has been named chief operations officer for Old Fashioned Garden Cafe in Omaha, Neb. Hager is responsible for participation in strategic growth planning, business operations and finance. Before joining the company Hager served as senior vice president for Darden Restaurants' The Olive Garden division and also was a regional director for Red Lobster.

B. Robert Kill and Dean A. Goodwin have joined the executive team of Hacienda Mexican Restaurants in South Bend, Ind. Kill has been named president, chief executive and shareholder of the 17-year-old Mexican restaurant chain and Goodwin has been appointed executive vice president and chief operating officer. Goodwin, who joined the company in 1980, also is a shareholder of Hacienda.

Accommodation by the Book — An Excerpt

Enhancing your HVAC isn't just a matter of going with the flow

It's ventilation, air filters, quality materials, and design–information you'll find (including an 800 number for free HVAC advice) in The Accommodation Program restaurant Source Book. It provides many suggestions that will help you keep non-smokers and smokers comfortable and your HVAC system working properly. Receive it FREE along with a catalog for other FREE materials when you participate in The Accommodation Program. Look for the reply card in this publication or call 1-800-929-1414.

The Accommodation Program® Courtesy of Philip Morris Incorporated

2061038565*

2061038565

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/fxwp0003